AKC National Owner-Handled Series

(Remember to check the box near the bottom of the entry form)

1. What is the purpose of the AKC National Owner-Handled Series?

To recognize and showcase the quality dogs being exhibited by owner/handlers and to provide a venue for the owner/handlers to compete against their peers. The determination of the awards in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series is based solely on the quality of the entry. The owner/handler's handling ability is not of consideration.

2. How do I enter the AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition?

The entry form now has an Owner-Handled eligible "check box" located below the lines for signature and telephone number. If you are eligible and interested in participating in the Series at an event, you must check the box on the entry form prior to the closing of the event. When entering an event using online services, check with that organization for instructions on how to enter the Series. There is no additional fee required to enter this competition.

3. How do I find a show that offers AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition?

Shows offering the AKC National Owner-Handled Series shows can be found using the Event & Results Search.

4. When and where will the end of year competition be held?

The end of year competition for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series will be held in conjunction with the AKC National Championship. Dogs that finished ranked in the top ten (plus ties) for their breed for the current qualifying period will be allowed to compete in the competition. The qualifying period for each year is from September through the following September. Please check the National Owner-Handled Series Rankings page for the current year's dates.

5. Is the AKC National Owner-Handled Series the same thing as the Amateur-Owner-Handler Class?

No, the Amateur-Owner-Handler Class is a regular class and the winner of this class will compete in the Winners Class for AKC Championship points. The AKC National Owner-Handled Series is a special attraction that selects an Owner-Handled dog from all eligible dogs in the Best of Breed ring including the Winners Dog or Bitch. However, no points towards a championship will be awarded in the Series. Dogs entered in the Amateur-Owner-Handler class are automatically eligible to compete in the National Owner-Handled Series on that day.

Eligibility

6. Since AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition occurs in the Best of Breed ring, how can Owner-Handled class dogs compete?

Eligible class dogs that are selected Winners Dog or Winners Bitch are included in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series judging.

7. Can I change handlers during competition?

Dogs must be handled by an owner/handler eligible for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series throughout the breed level competition for the point show. This includes the class competition and subsequent competition in the breed ring. Additionally, dogs must be handled by an eligible* owner/handler for all AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition. If the replacement handler is an eligible owner/handler for that dog a change can occur. Any person can show the dog in the regular group and Best In Show competitions. To be an eligible owner, a person must be an owner of record according to AKC's records on the day of the event and not be a professional handler.

8. Can a professional handler's spouse or child exhibit a dog in this competition?

No, household members and current assistants to professional handlers in conformation are not eligible to exhibit in this competition. Current assistants that are eligible to compete in Junior Showmanship may participate in NOHS. A current assistant is defined as anyone employed by a professional handler on a full-time basis, or, assisting a professional handler at the show or any show during the cluster/weekend. Eligibility restrictions apply to all members of the same household.

9. I have shown dogs for friends and was given money to cover my travel expenses. Am I now ineligible?

You may compete in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series as long as you are not a professional handler. Any type of remuneration associated with the service of handling a dog in the conformation ring meets the definition of a professional handler in regards to eligibility for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series. The reimbursement of travel expenses only (Ex: gas, food, hotel, etc.) would not classify a person as a professional handler, rendering them ineligible for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series.

10. Can a professional handler co-own a dog in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition?

Yes, dogs can be co-owned by a professional handler or members of their household (as described here) and be exhibited in this competition as long as the professional handler or household member does not exhibit the dog during eligible competition (see question 7). Eligibility restrictions apply to all members of the same household.

11. If the Select Bitch is eligible for NOHS is my Winners Bitch still eligible for further AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition?

Yes, unless the Best of Winners was awarded to an eligible Winners Dog.

12. My friend handles several dogs for people. Is she allowed to enter and compete in this series?

Yes, as long as your friend is not a professional handler.

13. Are judges allowed to compete in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series?

Yes if they have not worked as a professional handler within the last five years.

14. How do I protest an ineligible exhibitor who competes in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series?

Speak with the AKC Executive Field Representative in attendance or send signed protests with supporting documentation that an exhibitor was ineligible to the address below. Included in the protest must be the name of the ineligible exhibitor, the dog(s) they have shown in the Series, and supporting documentation. AKC Attn: Event Records PO Box 900051 Raleigh, NC 27675-9051

15. If a dog fails to compete in the NOHS Group or NOHS BIS ring, will their NOHS awards for the event be cancelled?

No, because the NOHS is a special attraction, there is not a requirement to continue to compete at the show.

16. If a dog is “cut” or “defeated” during the Best of Breed competition, is it ineligible to compete in the NOHS competition for the breed?

A dog being “cut” or otherwise “defeated” in the Best of Breed ring remains eligible to compete in the NOHS. The NOHS Best of Breed will be selected from the eligible exhibits based on the program guidelines and procedures.

17. If a dog receives an Award of Merit (AOM), are the other eligible dogs in the ring considered eliminated for the purposes of determining Owner-Handled Best of Breed/Variety?

No, the other dogs in the ring are not eliminated by any dog(s) receiving an Award of Merit (AOM). The AOM is a club award which the criteria for awarding are determined by each individual club. Since the AOM is not an AKC award and the criteria varies from club to club these dogs are not considered to have eliminated any dogs in the Best of Breed/Variety ring for the purposes of determining Owner-Handled Best of Breed/Variety.

18. If a dog is marked eligible for NOHS competition, can a professional handler exhibit the dog at the show?

If a professional handler exhibits a dog in breed, NOHS group, or NOHS Best in Show competition all NOHS awards at the event are subject to cancellation. A professional handler can exhibit an NOHS-eligible dog in regular group and regular Best in Show competition. Additionally, a professional handler may be able to exhibit the dog in other competitions at the event such as Rally, Obedience, Agility, etc. as per the rules and regulations of those sports.

19. Can Junior Handlers participate in the NOHS competition?

Junior Handlers eligible for Junior Showmanship (under 18years of age) that meet the amateur status requirements on the day may participate in NOHS.

20. If I prepare a dog(s) I own or co-own for the ring and one or more of the dogs are shown by a professional at an event, am I eligible to show in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series (NOHS)?

If you are only preparing (grooming, exercising, etc.) dogs you own or co-own, you are not considered as ineligible for NOHS.

21. If I prepare a dog(s) I own or co-own for the ring and I am a member of the same household as a professional, am I eligible to show in the AKC National Owner-Handled Series (NOHS)?

If you are only preparing (grooming, exercising, etc.) dogs you own or co-own, you are not considered as ineligible for NOHS.

 Professional handlers are defined as any person who belongs or has belonged to a professional handlers' organization, distributed rate cards, or otherwise advertised or represented themselves as handling dogs for pay within the last five years.*

 A current assistant is defined as anyone employed by a professional handler on a full-time basis, or assisting a professional handler at the show or any time during the cluster/weekend.

AKC has decided to allow a division of the BBE class at shows on or after March 29, 2022

The Divisions will be Puppy (6 months and under 12 months) and Adult (over 12 months).

As a result of this change, entries competing in any division of the Bred-by-Exhibitor (BBE) Class, which are awarded winners, will be counted toward the BBE medallion as the dog advanced from the BBE class as required. In addition, the Puppy division of the Bred-by-Exhibitor class will be added to the list of classes in which points toward the Puppy of Achievement Certificate may be earned.

At our shows, on the days that we offer a BBE Group, the winner of each of the BBE classes (both Puppy and Adult) in each sex will compete for best BBE in breed. The winner of this competition will represent the breed in the BBE Group.

At our shows, on the days that we offer a Puppy Group, there will be no change in the Best Puppy in breed competition. Only the winners of the 6-9 month Puppy and 9-12 month Puppy classes will be eligible for Best Puppy in Breed. The winners of the "BBE Puppy" classes WILL NOT BE ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE FOR BEST PUPPY IN BREED, as they are coming from a division of the BBE class not a Puppy Class.

We can now take Discover, MasterCard, Visa and American Express credit cards for your entries. We will need the exact name on the card, the card number, expiration date and the security code from the back of the card. There is a $4 charge per dog per day.
